

Marvell Hall Byron Bay

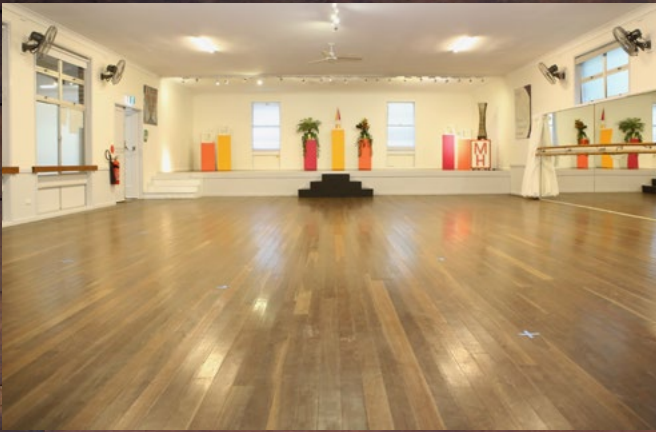

Located in central Byron Bay and within easy walk of the main beach and cafes, you'll find one of Byron Bay's hidden gems. Marvell Hall is being renovated in stages so it can continue to be used as a centre for cultural and community activities.

Named after poet Andrew Marvell, Marvell Hall is establishing a reputation as home to the more gentle arts. Already hosting yoga and meditation, philosophy, permaculture, dance and silent disco, Marvell Hall lends itself to a variety of events.

Choir, theatre, workshops, concerts, conferences, meetings, celebrations, funerals, exhibitions, arts&crafts, card and crossword clubs...even pop-up shops. We're ready to listen to your ideas and help !

Oodgeroo Room - Main Hall

Lawson Room

Kitchen

Mackellar Room

Marvell Hall offers three multi purpose spaces all connected by a spacious foyer.

OODGEROO ROOM

The Oodgeroo Room is a large hall with a stage, a mirrored wall and the original hardwood floor. It has direct access to the private rear garden. Capacity 135 people.

LAWSON ROOM

The Lawson Room is a light and comfortable newly renovated room with board table, upholstered chairs and carpeted floor. Ideal for casual work meetings or small conferences. Capacity 12 people.

MACKELLAR ROOM

The Mackellar Room looks over the rear garden area. This room has modern vinyl flooring with tables and chairs, which can be arranged to suit your purposes. There is a convenient hatch to the large kitchen, which can be booked separately. Capacity 17 people.

KITCHEN

The large, functional kitchen offers plenty of cupboard space and great island workbench. Available to rent separately or together with another room.

DISABLED ACCESS

There is a wide ramp providing easy access to the entrance. Once inside all rooms are on one level including an unisex disabled toilet.

HOURS OF HIRE

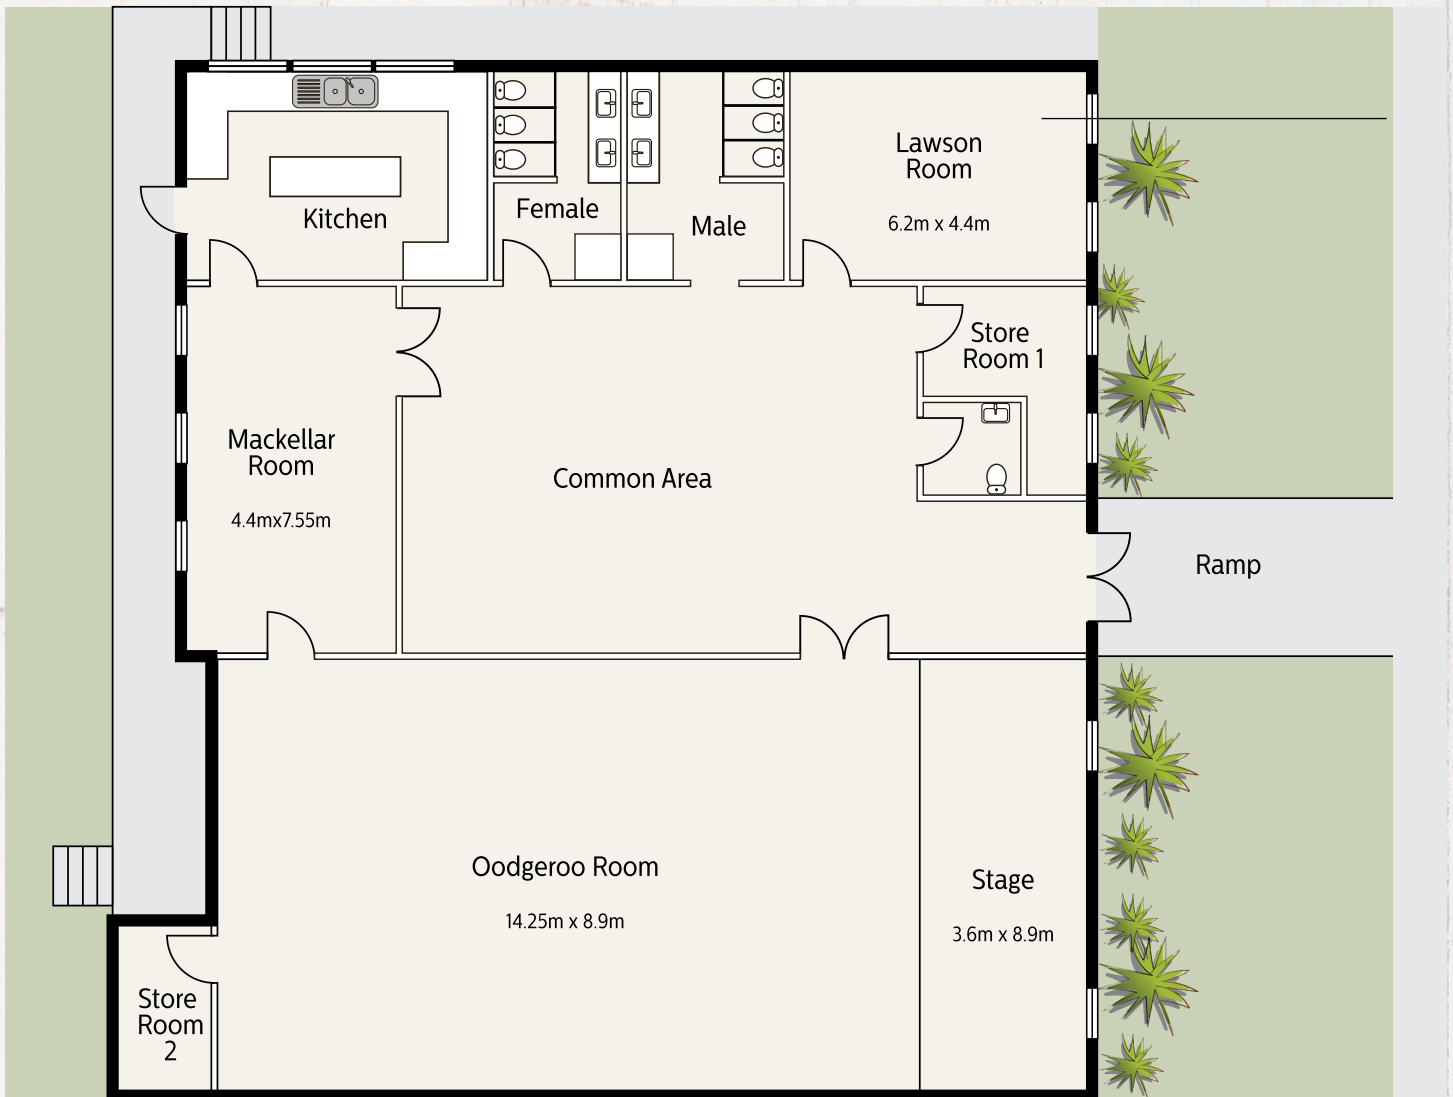

The Hall is available every day from 6.30 am until 11pm (respectful noise limits apply).

Central foyer or common room

Marvell Hall, Byron Bay

Floor Plan

Parking and Accessibility:

- Ample street parking.

CAPACITY

135 people

INVENTORY

- 1 ladder
- 59 chairs
- 6 x dining tables
- 1 x fridge
- 2 x kitchen island tables
- 1 x Microwave

