

Annual Returns of Interests Register

As required under Council's Code of Conduct for Councillors and Code of Conduct for Council Staff, and the Information and Privacy Commissions Guideline 1: For Local Councils on the disclosure of information contained in the returns disclosing the interest of councillors and designated persons developed under the Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009 (NSW) the following Interest Returns are published for the period 2020 to 2021:

1. Councillors' Interest Returns;
2. Designated Staff members' Interest Returns

Council has identified that the following personal information is to be redacted from each of the Pecuniary Interest Returns:

- Councillors and Designated Staff members' addresses;
- Councillors and Designated Staff members' certain details of debts; and
- Councillors and Designated Staff members' signature details.

Any additional redactions to the Pecuniary Interest Returns published have been determined by Council based on reasoning under the Public Interest Considerations Against Disclosure set out in the table contained in Section 14 of the GIPA Act.

If you would like to view an original Interest Return please attend the Council Administration Centre in Mullumbimby.

Disclosures by Councillors and Designated Persons Return

- The pecuniary interests and other matters to be disclosed in this return are required to be lodged under clause 4.9 in the Code of Conduct for Councillors and under clause 4.19 in the Code of Conduct for Staff.
- If you are lodging a return for the first time after attaining the position of councillor or designated person, do not complete Parts C, D and I of the return. All other parts of the return should be completed based on your circumstances at the date when you became a councillor or designated person (generally the date of your commencement in your position).
- If this return is not the first return required to be submitted by you after attaining that position, complete all parts with information based on your circumstances for the 12 month period beginning on 30 June of the previous year to 30 June of this year.
- If there are no pecuniary interests or other matters of the kind required to be disclosed under a particular main heading in this form, the word NIL is to be placed in an appropriate space under that heading.

This information is being collected for the purpose of compliance with the Code of Conduct. You must not lodge a return that you know or ought to know is false or misleading in a material particular.

Complaints about breaches of these requirements may be referred to the Office of Local Government (OLG) and may result in disciplinary action by the council, the Chief Executive of OLG or the NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal.

The information collected on this form will be kept by the general manager at the council in a register of returns. Councils must make all returns of interests publically available. You may correct or update the information contained in the register of returns by submitting a fresh return at any time.

It is important that you use the Guide to Completing Returns of Interest to assist you in completing this return

Information

Disclosures by Councillors and Designated Persons Return

- The pecuniary interests and other matters to be disclosed in this return are required to be lodged under clause 4.9 in the Code of Conduct for Councillors and under clause 4.19 in the Code of Conduct for Staff.
- If you are lodging a return for the first time after attaining the position of councillor or designated person, do not complete Parts C, D and I of the return. All other parts of the return should be completed based on your circumstances at the date when you became a councillor or designated person (generally the date of your commencement in your position).
- If this return is not the first return required to be submitted by you after attaining that position, complete all parts with information based on your circumstances for the 12 month period beginning on 30 June of the previous year to 30 June of this year.
- If there are no pecuniary interests or other matters of the kind required to be disclosed under a particular main heading in this form, the word NIL is to be placed in an appropriate space under that heading.

This information is being collected for the purpose of compliance with the Code of Conduct. You must not lodge a return that you know or ought to know is false or misleading in a material particular.

Complaints about breaches of these requirements may be referred to the Office of Local Government (OLG) and may result in disciplinary action by the council, the Chief Executive of OLG or the NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal.

The information collected on this form will be kept by the general manager at the council in a register of returns. Councils must make all returns of interests publicly available. You may correct or update the information contained in the register of returns by submitting a fresh return at any time.

It is important that you use the Guide to Completing Returns of Interest to assist you in completing this return

Information

Disclosures by Councillors and Designated Persons Return

1. The pecuniary interests and other matters to be disclosed in this return are required to be lodged under clause 4.9 in the Code of Conduct for Councillors and under clause 4.19 in the Code of Conduct for Staff.
2. If you are lodging a return for the first time after attaining the position of councillor or designated person, do not complete Parts C, D and I of the return. All other parts of the return should be completed based on your circumstances at the date when you became a councillor or designated person (generally the date of your commencement in your position).
3. If this return is not the first return required to be submitted by you after attaining that position, complete all parts with information based on your circumstances for the 12 month period beginning on 30 June of the previous year to 30 June of this year.
4. If there are no pecuniary interests or other matters of the kind required to be disclosed under a particular main heading in this form, the word NIL is to be placed in an appropriate space under that heading.

This information is being collected for the purpose of compliance with the Code of Conduct. You must not lodge a return that you know or ought to know is false or misleading in a material particular.

Complaints about breaches of these requirements may be referred to the Office of Local Government (OLG) and may result in disciplinary action by the council, the Chief Executive of OLG or the NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal.

The information collected on this form will be kept by the general manager at the council in a register of returns. Councils must make all returns of interests publically available. You may correct or update the information contained in the register of returns by submitting a fresh return at any time.

It is important that you use the Guide to Completing Returns of Interest to assist you in completing this return

Disclosures by Councillors and Designated Persons Return

1. The pecuniary interests and other matters to be disclosed in this return are required to be lodged under clause 4.9 in the Code of Conduct for Councillors and under clause 4.19 in the Code of Conduct for Staff.
2. If you are lodging a return for the first time after attaining the position of councillor or designated person, do not complete Parts C, D and I of the return. All other parts of the return should be completed based on your circumstances at the date when you became a councillor or designated person (generally the date of your commencement in your position).
3. If this return is not the first return required to be submitted by you after attaining that position, complete all parts with information based on your circumstances for the 12 month period beginning on 30 June of the previous year to 30 June of this year.
4. If there are no pecuniary interests or other matters of the kind required to be disclosed under a particular main heading in this form, the word NIL is to be placed in an appropriate space under that heading.

This information is being collected for the purpose of compliance with the Code of Conduct. You must not lodge a return that you know or ought to know is false or misleading in a material particular.

Complaints about breaches of these requirements may be referred to the Office of Local Government (OLG) and may result in disciplinary action by the council, the Chief Executive of OLG or the NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal.

The information collected on this form will be kept by the general manager at the council in a register of returns. Councils must make all returns of interests publicly available. You may correct or update the information contained in the register of returns by submitting a fresh return at any time.

It is important that you use the Guide to Completing Returns of Interest to assist you in completing this return

Disclosure of Interests

Information

Disclosures by Councillors and Designated Persons Return

- The pecuniary interests and other matters to be disclosed in this return are required to be lodged under clause 4.9 in the Code of Conduct for Councillors and under clause 4.19 in the Code of Conduct for Staff.
- If you are lodging a return for the first time after attaining the position of councillor or designated person, do not complete Parts C, D and I of the return. All other parts of the return should be completed based on your circumstances at the date when you became a councillor or designated person (generally the date of your commencement in your position).
- If this return is not the first return required to be submitted by you after attaining that position, complete all parts with information based on your circumstances for the 12 month period beginning on 30 June of the previous year to 30 June of this year.
- If there are no pecuniary interests or other matters of the kind required to be disclosed under a particular main heading in this form, the word NIL is to be placed in an appropriate space under that heading.

This information is being collected for the purpose of compliance with the Code of Conduct. You must not lodge a return that you know or ought to know is false or misleading in a material particular.

Complaints about breaches of these requirements may be referred to the Office of Local Government (OLG) and may result in disciplinary action by the council, the Chief Executive of OLG or the NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal.

The information collected on this form will be kept by the general manager at the council in a register of returns. Councils must make all returns of interests publically available. You may correct or update the information contained in the register of returns by submitting a fresh return at any time.

It is important that you use the Guide to Completing Returns of Interest to assist you in completing this return

Disclosure of Interests

Information

Disclosures by Councillors and Designated Persons Return

- The pecuniary interests and other matters to be disclosed in this return are required to be lodged under clause 4.9 in the Code of Conduct for Councillors and under clause 4.19 in the Code of Conduct for Staff.
- If you are lodging a return for the first time after attaining the position of councillor or designated person, do not complete Parts C, D and I of the return. All other parts of the return should be completed based on your circumstances at the date when you became a councillor or designated person (generally the date of your commencement in your position).
- If this return is not the first return required to be submitted by you after attaining that position, complete all parts with information based on your circumstances for the 12 month period beginning on 30 June of the previous year to 30 June of this year.
- If there are no pecuniary interests or other matters of the kind required to be disclosed under a particular main heading in this form, the word NIL is to be placed in an appropriate space under that heading.

This information is being collected for the purpose of compliance with the Code of Conduct. You must not lodge a return that you know or ought to know is false or misleading in a material particular.

Complaints about breaches of these requirements may be referred to the Office of Local Government (OLG) and may result in disciplinary action by the council, the Chief Executive of OLG or the NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal.

The information collected on this form will be kept by the general manager at the council in a register of returns. Councils must make all returns of interests publically available. You may correct or update the information contained in the register of returns by submitting a fresh return at any time.

It is important that you use the Guide to Completing Returns of Interest to assist you in completing this return

Disclosures by Councillors and Designated Persons Return

1. The pecuniary interests and other matters to be disclosed in this return are required to be lodged under clause 4.9 in the Code of Conduct for Councillors and under clause 4.19 in the Code of Conduct for Staff.
2. If you are lodging a return for the first time after attaining the position of councillor or designated person, do not complete Parts C, D and I of the return. All other parts of the return should be completed based on your circumstances at the date when you became a councillor or designated person (generally the date of your commencement in your position).
3. If this return is not the first return required to be submitted by you after attaining that position, complete all parts with information based on your circumstances for the 12 month period beginning on 30 June of the previous year to 30 June of this year.
4. If there are no pecuniary interests or other matters of the kind required to be disclosed under a particular main heading in this form, the word NIL is to be placed in an appropriate space under that heading.

This information is being collected for the purpose of compliance with the Code of Conduct. You must not lodge a return that you know or ought to know is false or misleading in a material particular.

Complaints about breaches of these requirements may be referred to the Office of Local Government (OLG) and may result in disciplinary action by the council, the Chief Executive of OLG or the NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal.

The information collected on this form will be kept by the general manager at the council in a register of returns. Councils must make all returns of interests publically available. You may correct or update the information contained in the register of returns by submitting a fresh return at any time.

Information

Disclosures by Councillors and Designated Persons Return

- The pecuniary interests and other matters to be disclosed in this return are required to be lodged under clause 4.9 in the Code of Conduct for Councillors and under clause 4.19 in the Code of Conduct for Staff.
- If you are lodging a return for the first time after attaining the position of councillor or designated person, do not complete Parts C, D and I of the return. All other parts of the return should be completed based on your circumstances at the date when you became a councillor or designated person (generally the date of your commencement in your position).
- If this return is not the first return required to be submitted by you after attaining that position, complete all parts with information based on your circumstances for the 12 month period beginning on 30 June of the previous year to 30 June of this year.
- If there are no pecuniary interests or other matters of the kind required to be disclosed under a particular main heading in this form, the word NIL is to be placed in an appropriate space under that heading.

This information is being collected for the purpose of compliance with the Code of Conduct. You must not lodge a return that you know or ought to know is false or misleading in a material particular.

Complaints about breaches of these requirements may be referred to the Office of Local Government (OLG) and may result in disciplinary action by the council, the Chief Executive of OLG or the NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal.

The information collected on this form will be kept by the general manager at the council in a register of returns. Councils must make all returns of interests publicly available. You may correct or update the information contained in the register of returns by submitting a fresh return at any time.

It is important that you use the Guide to Completing Returns of Interest to assist you in completing this return

Disclosure of Interests

Information

Disclosures by Councillors and Designated Persons Return

- The pecuniary interests and other matters to be disclosed in this return are required to be lodged under clause 4.9 in the Code of Conduct for Councillors and under clause 4.19 in the Code of Conduct for Staff.
- If you are lodging a return for the first time after attaining the position of councillor or designated person, do not complete Parts C, D and I of the return. All other parts of the return should be completed based on your circumstances at the date when you became a councillor or designated person (generally the date of your commencement in your position).
- If this return is not the first return required to be submitted by you after attaining that position, complete all parts with information based on your circumstances for the 12 month period beginning on 30 June of the previous year to 30 June of this year.
- If there are no pecuniary interests or other matters of the kind required to be disclosed under a particular main heading in this form, the word NIL is to be placed in an appropriate space under that heading.

This information is being collected for the purpose of compliance with the Code of Conduct. You must not lodge a return that you know or ought to know is false or misleading in a material particular.

Complaints about breaches of these requirements may be referred to the Office of Local Government (OLG) and may result in disciplinary action by the council, the Chief Executive of OLG or the NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal.

The information collected on this form will be kept by the general manager at the council in a register of returns. Councils must make all returns of interests publically available. You may correct or update the information contained in the register of returns by submitting a fresh return at any time.

It is important that you use the Guide to Completing Returns of Interest to assist you in completing this return

Information

Disclosures by Councillors and Designated Persons Return

- The pecuniary interests and other matters to be disclosed in this return are required to be lodged under clause 4.9 in the Code of Conduct for Councillors and under clause 4.19 in the Code of Conduct for Staff.
- If you are lodging a return for the first time after attaining the position of councillor or designated person, do not complete Parts C, D and I of the return. All other parts of the return should be completed based on your circumstances at the date when you became a councillor or designated person (generally the date of your commencement in your position).
- If this return is not the first return required to be submitted by you after attaining that position, complete all parts with information based on your circumstances for the 12 month period beginning on 30 June of the previous year to 30 June of this year.
- If there are no pecuniary interests or other matters of the kind required to be disclosed under a particular main heading in this form, the word NIL is to be placed in an appropriate space under that heading.

This information is being collected for the purpose of compliance with the Code of Conduct. You must not lodge a return that you know or ought to know is false or misleading in a material particular.

Complaints about breaches of these requirements may be referred to the Office of Local Government (OLG) and may result in disciplinary action by the council, the Chief Executive of OLG or the NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal.

The information collected on this form will be kept by the general manager at the council in a register of returns. Councils must make all returns of interests publicly available. You may correct or update the information contained in the register of returns by submitting a fresh return at any time.

Information

Disclosures by Councillors and Designated Persons Return

- The pecuniary interests and other matters to be disclosed in this return are required to be lodged under clause 4.9 in the Code of Conduct for Councillors and under clause 4.19 in the Code of Conduct for Staff.
- If you are lodging a return for the first time after attaining the position of councillor or designated person, do not complete Parts C, D and I of the return. All other parts of the return should be completed based on your circumstances at the date when you became a councillor or designated person (generally the date of your commencement in your position).
- If this return is not the first return required to be submitted by you after attaining that position, complete all parts with information based on your circumstances for the 12 month period beginning on 30 June of the previous year to 30 June of this year.
- If there are no pecuniary interests or other matters of the kind required to be disclosed under a particular main heading in this form, the word NIL is to be placed in an appropriate space under that heading.

This information is being collected for the purpose of compliance with the Code of Conduct. You must not lodge a return that you know or ought to know is false or misleading in a material particular.

Complaints about breaches of these requirements may be referred to the Office of Local Government (OLG) and may result in disciplinary action by the council, the Chief Executive of OLG or the NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal.

The information collected on this form will be kept by the general manager at the council in a register of returns. Councils must make all returns of interests publicly available. You may correct or update the information contained in the register of returns by submitting a fresh return at any time.

It is important that you use the Guide to Completing Returns of Interest to assist you in completing this return

Disclosure of Interests

Information

Disclosures by Councillors and Designated Persons Return

- The pecuniary interests and other matters to be disclosed in this return are required to be lodged under clause 4.9 in the Code of Conduct for Councillors and under clause 4.19 in the Code of Conduct for Staff.
- If you are lodging a return for the first time after attaining the position of councillor or designated person, do not complete Parts C, D and I of the return. All other parts of the return should be completed based on your circumstances at the date when you became a councillor or designated person (generally the date of your commencement in your position).
- If this return is not the first return required to be submitted by you after attaining that position, complete all parts with information based on your circumstances for the 12 month period beginning on 30 June of the previous year to 30 June of this year.
- If there are no pecuniary interests or other matters of the kind required to be disclosed under a particular main heading in this form, the word NIL is to be placed in an appropriate space under that heading.

This information is being collected for the purpose of compliance with the Code of Conduct. You must not lodge a return that you know or ought to know is false or misleading in a material particular.

Complaints about breaches of these requirements may be referred to the Office of Local Government (OLG) and may result in disciplinary action by the council, the Chief Executive of OLG or the NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal.

The information collected on this form will be kept by the general manager at the council in a register of returns. Councils must make all returns of interests publically available. You may correct or update the information contained in the register of returns by submitting a fresh return at any time.

It is important that you use the Guide to Completing Returns of Interest to assist you in completing this return

Information

Disclosures by Councillors and Designated Persons Return

- The pecuniary interests and other matters to be disclosed in this return are required to be lodged under clause 4.9 in the Code of Conduct for Councillors and under clause 4.19 in the Code of Conduct for Staff.
- If you are lodging a return for the first time after attaining the position of councillor or designated person, do not complete Parts C, D and I of the return. All other parts of the return should be completed based on your circumstances at the date when you became a councillor or designated person (generally the date of your commencement in your position).
- If this return is not the first return required to be submitted by you after attaining that position, complete all parts with information based on your circumstances for the 12 month period beginning on 30 June of the previous year to 30 June of this year.
- If there are no pecuniary interests or other matters of the kind required to be disclosed under a particular main heading in this form, the word NIL is to be placed in an appropriate space under that heading.

This information is being collected for the purpose of compliance with the Code of Conduct. You must not lodge a return that you know or ought to know is false or misleading in a material particular.

Complaints about breaches of these requirements may be referred to the Office of Local Government (OLG) and may result in disciplinary action by the council, the Chief Executive of OLG or the NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal.

The information collected on this form will be kept by the general manager at the council in a register of returns. Councils must make all returns of interests publically available. You may correct or update the information contained in the register of returns by submitting a fresh return at any time.

It is important that you use the Guide to Completing Returns of Interest to assist you in completing this return

Information

Disclosures by Councillors and Designated Persons Return

- The pecuniary interests and other matters to be disclosed in this return are required to be lodged under clause 4.9 in the Code of Conduct for Councillors and under clause 4.19 in the Code of Conduct for Staff.
- If you are lodging a return for the first time after attaining the position of councillor or designated person, do not complete Parts C, D and I of the return. All other parts of the return should be completed based on your circumstances at the date when you became a councillor or designated person (generally the date of your commencement in your position).
- If this return is not the first return required to be submitted by you after attaining that position, complete all parts with information based on your circumstances for the 12 month period beginning on 30 June of the previous year to 30 June of this year.
- If there are no pecuniary interests or other matters of the kind required to be disclosed under a particular main heading in this form, the word NIL is to be placed in an appropriate space under that heading.

This information is being collected for the purpose of compliance with the Code of Conduct. You must not lodge a return that you know or ought to know is false or misleading in a material particular.

Complaints about breaches of these requirements may be referred to the Office of Local Government (OLG) and may result in disciplinary action by the council, the Chief Executive of OLG or the NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal.

The information collected on this form will be kept by the general manager at the council in a register of returns. Councils must make all returns of interests publically available. You may correct or update the information contained in the register of returns by submitting a fresh return at any time.

It is important that you use the Guide to Completing Returns of Interest to assist you in completing this return

Disclosure of Interests

Information

Disclosures by Councillors and Designated Persons Return

1. The pecuniary interests and other matters to be disclosed in this return are required to be lodged under clause 4.9 in the Code of Conduct for Councillors and under clause 4.19 in the Code of Conduct for Staff.
2. If you are lodging a return for the first time after attaining the position of councillor or designated person, do not complete Parts C, D and I of the return. All other parts of the return should be completed based on your circumstances at the date when you became a councillor or designated person (generally the date of your commencement in your position).
3. If this return is not the first return required to be submitted by you after attaining that position, complete all parts with information based on your circumstances for the 12 month period beginning on 30 June of the previous year to 30 June of this year.
4. If there are no pecuniary interests or other matters of the kind required to be disclosed under a particular main heading in this form, the word NIL is to be placed in an appropriate space under that heading.

This information is being collected for the purpose of compliance with the Code of Conduct. You must not lodge a return that you know or ought to know is false or misleading in a material particular.

Complaints about breaches of these requirements may be referred to the Office of Local Government (OLG) and may result in disciplinary action by the council, the Chief Executive of OLG or the NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal.

The information collected on this form will be kept by the general manager at the council in a register of returns. Councils must make all returns of interests publically available. You may correct or update the information contained in the register of returns by submitting a fresh return at any time.

It is important that you use the Guide to Completing Returns of Interest to assist you in completing this return
