This map illustrates the proposed infrastructure for the Federal area, including roads, paths, and land uses. The map features a central residential area shaded in light red, with a network of roads and paths. Key roads include Federal Drive, Birna Burra Road, and Coorabell Road. A blue river flows through the bottom of the map. The legend defines various path types: Shared cycle path (solid grey), Other (solid light grey), Off-road separated cycle path (thick solid orange), On-road separated cycle path (solid orange), On-road cycle lane (dashed orange), Mixed traffic (dotted orange), and Shared path (dash-dot orange). Land uses are color-coded: Residential (light red), Commercial (light blue), Environmental (light green), and Industrial (light purple). Pedestrian crossings are marked with black dots. The map also shows existing paths and new/upgraded crossings. The area is bordered by a thick orange line on the right and bottom, and a grey line on the left.
